questions for reflection

Why is Paul writing these things? What is happening at that time and in that church?

What is happening now that is similar?

How would you react if your friend sent you a text like this passage that Paul wrote?

How would you use this to encourage a friend or someone you meet?

Take a moment to write down something that you do that brings joy to you and those around you. Can you use it to encourage others?

What would your closest friend say? Is there a gift that they would say you have? If you aren't sure reach out and ask them
